

Figure 5: Pelvic radiographs 488 days post-iliectomy revealing new bone formation within the right hemipelvis region where the hemipelvectomy was performed cranial to the coxofemoral joint. The prolene mesh implant can be visualized. The right proximal femur is slightly more osteopenic compared to the left.

